1. God's word to the desert kingdom of _____.

- a. In light of Babylon's godless treachery, Elam and Media are commanded by _____ to overthrow that evil nation.
- b. Isaiah's _____ illustrates that it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
- c. God ordained that Babylon will certainly _____.

*"Babylon is the _____ as the center of seduction at any moment of history. The harlot, Babylon, always opposes the bride, new Jerusalem. ... Babylon's fall takes place throughout history but especially on the great day of final judgment. The fall of the last great Babylon--Babylon in it's final form--coincides with the coming of our Lord unto judgment."
- William Hendriksen*

2. God's words to Edom and Arabia are a reminder that the _____ of sin and judgment are realities that only the light of the Lord God of Israel can address.

3. God's word to Jerusalem, the valley of _____.

- a. Judgment is inescapable to those who have heard God's revelation but _____ it.

*"_____ privileges, if they be not improved, will not secure men from the judgments of God. The higher any are lifted up in means and mercies the heavier will their doom be if they abuse them."
- Matthew Henry*

- b. It is _____ to make preparations for what is to come, but our true dependence must be on the Lord.
- c. It is foolish to _____ the Lord when He calls us, by His Word and by our circumstances, to turn to Him.
