

Sermon Notes for Kids

Date _____

A Theology of Work and Vocation

Texts _____

(these notes might last a while)

God is the ultimate _____

He created us to be _____

Work is a _____ ordinance

Work/labor is frustrated by the _____ and hebel

Work is a _____ requirement

We looked at the _____

There developed a distinction between the secular and _____

The "sacred" is spiritual work in the kingdom of _____ Everyone else "just works to _____"

The Reformation obliterated the secular/sacred _____

The Reformation revived the biblical _____

Luther, "The whole world could abound with services to the Lord. – not only in churches but also in the home, kitchen, workshop, _____."

Calvin, We know that men were created to busy themselves with _____ and that no sacrifice is more pleasing to God than when each one attends to his calling and studies to live well for the common _____."

Tyndale, "There is no work better than another to please God: to pour water, to wash _____, to be a [cobbler], or an apostle, all are one; to wash dishes and to preach are all one, as touching the deed, to please _____."

This conviction shaped what would become known as the Protestant Work _____

The Puritans emphasized the idea of _____ and that every calling is from the Lord and therefore all work is _____ and should be done as unto the Lord.

Everyone has a _____

God has given each one of you:

A stewardship of _____ and abilities

A _____

An _____

Whatever your calling, you are to do it for the _____ of God

We glorify God by consciously _____ on Him in our work

We glorify God by _____ God for our work

We glorify God through hard and _____ work

Work is the way that God _____ for us

We work hard to make money, not so that we can get more

_____, but so that we can give more to the work of the kingdom and share with those in _____

List the Proverbs Pastor Brian gives

John Preston, "We must labor not for our own good, but for the _____ of others."