

GOSPEL OF MARK
Judas, One Of The Twelve
Mark 14:1-2, 10-11, 17-21

Mac Williams, Pastor
October 12, 2014

1. The _____ of God.

- a. It was by God's decree that the Son of Man was to _____ for sinners.
- b. It was by God's decree that Jesus was to be crucified during the _____.
- c. It was by God's decree that Jesus was to be _____ by one near to Him.

2. The actions of _____.

- a. Judas was greatly blessed to be one of the _____.
- b. Judas gave clear evidence that his heart had _____ been transformed by Christ.

- c. Judas was fully responsible for the evil actions _____ committed.

"Those two principles, no doubt, appear to human _____ to be inconsistent with each other, that God regulates the affairs of men by His Providence in such a manner, that nothing is done but by His will and command, and yet He damns the reprobate, by whom He has carried into execution what He intended." - John Calvin

3. _____ solemn announcement of His betrayal at the Passover meal.

- a. Jesus gave a serious _____ to Judas.
- b. Jesus called all of the _____ to examine their own hearts.
- c. Jesus' announcement gave a further illustration of the depth of His _____ for sinners.