

The Words of the Preacher: ECCLESIASTES

Life Under the Sun

Vanity of Universal Death

Ecclesiastes 9:1-10

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty God, You give life, sustain life and order all creation for your good and wise ends. You know, ordain and number our days. Grant us humble hearts this morning as we place ourselves under the authority of the truth of your Word that we might know your gift of life and rejoice in the blessings of life for your name's sake. Convince us of just how frail we are and how faithful you continue to be as we receive by faith your preached Word this morning. Do these things for us in the name, authority and power of Jesus Christ our eternal life. Amen & Amen
