Weekly Quote

“A religious fast is the devotion of the whole man to a solemn, extraordinary attendance upon God, in a particular time separated for that end, for the deprecating [of] his displeasure, and for the supplicating of his favour, joined with an abstinence from bodily food, and other bodily delights, and from secular affairs. So that he that fasteth doth for that time separate himself to God, and doth voluntarily dedicate a part of time to his more solemn service; and doth put himself, as it were, under a religious vow, to abide solemnly with God in the duties of the fast he is engaged in.” – Matthew Barker

“A religious fast is the devotion of the whole man to a solemn, extraordinary attendance upon God, in a particular time separated for that end, for the deprecating [of] his displeasure, and for the supplicating of his favour, joined with an abstinence from bodily food, and other bodily delights, and from secular affairs. So that he that fasteth doth for that time separate himself to God, and doth voluntarily dedicate a part of time to his more solemn service; and doth put himself, as it were, under a religious vow, to abide solemnly with God in the duties of the fast he is engaged in.” – Matthew Barker

“A religious fast is the devotion of the whole man to a solemn, extraordinary attendance upon God, in a particular time separated for that end, for the deprecating [of] his displeasure, and for the supplicating of his favour, joined with an abstinence from bodily food, and other bodily delights, and from secular affairs. So that he that fasteth doth for that time separate himself to God, and doth voluntarily dedicate a part of time to his more solemn service; and doth put himself, as it were, under a religious vow, to abide solemnly with God in the duties of the fast he is engaged in.” – Matthew Barker

Who we Are:

Westminster: As historic reformed believers, we recognize that in God's gracious providence he has provided His Church with many creeds and confessions. Our Church subscribes to the Westminster Standards – which encompass the teachings of the Bible in the best human expression.

Presbyterian: In our form of church government and practice we are presbyterian – simply put, we believe in a church government that is instituted by God and is entrusted to His ambassadors; ministers and elders in their several bodies.

Church: God is calling a people unto Himself, and He has a special care for his bride, the Church! Where His special care is seen in the provision of growth, worship, and practice as we are fitly joined together into a whole as the Bride of Christ
