"When the race is ended, and the play is either won or lost, and ye are in the utmost circle and border of time, and shall put your foot within the march of eternity, all the good things of your short nightdream shall seem to you like ashes of a blaze of thorns or straw."

By: Samuel Rutherford (17th c. Scottish Presbyterian)

We encourage each one to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
