

Sermon Notes for Kids

God of My Good Days and Bad
Ecc. 7:13-15

None of us knows what the _____ holds.

The wise man ponders his own _____

The fool would rather go to a _____

Throughout this book, Solomon has been an observer, he watches, he considers, he _____.

For who is able to straighten what He has _____?

In the day of prosperity be _____

But in the day of adversity _____

Acknowledge He is over both days, sovereign over both _____

We do not have the capacity to _____ the sovereign providence of the Almighty.

God's favor cannot be _____ by what we do.

Remember, the sovereign God is not impersonal, He is _____

He has done more for me already than I could ever _____

Future Party happy days controlled imagine

Death studies bent consider read personal

