

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Lord's Day, October 18, 2009

Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; And having an high priest over the house of God; Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) (Hebrew 10:19-23)

Let all the people say, "Amen!" Praise ye the Lord

The church is called to be a confessing church, that she may be, the pillar and ground of the truth (1Tim. 3:15,16)

Belgic Confession: Article 27 - The Catholic or Universal Church

We believe and profess one catholic or universal Church, which is a holy congregation and assembly of the true Christian believers, who expect their entire salvation in Jesus Christ, are washed by His blood, and are sanctified and sealed by the Holy Spirit.

This Church has existed from the beginning of the world and will be to the end, for Christ is an eternal King who cannot be without subjects. This holy Church is preserved by God against the fury of the whole world, although for a while it may look very small and as extinct in the eyes of man. Thus during the perilous reign of Ahab, the Lord kept for Himself seven thousand persons who had not bowed their knees to Baal.

Moreover, this holy Church is not confined or limited to one particular place or to certain persons, but is spread and dispersed throughout the entire world. However, it is joined and united with heart and will, in one and the same Spirit, by the power of faith.

Belgic Confession: Article 28 - Everyone's duty to join the Church

We believe, since this holy assembly and congregation is the assembly of the redeemed and there is no salvation outside of it, that no one ought to withdraw from it, content to be by himself, no matter what his state or quality may be. But all and everyone are obliged to join it and unite with it, maintaining the unity of the Church. They must submit themselves to its instruction and discipline, bend their necks under the yoke of Jesus Christ, and serve the edification of the brothers and sisters, according to the talents which God has given them as members of the same body.

To observe this more effectively, it is the duty of all believers, according to the Word of God, to separate from those who do not belong to the Church and to join this assembly wherever God has established it. They should do so even though the rulers and edicts of princes were against it, and death or physical punishment might follow.

All therefore who draw away from the Church or fail to join it act contrary to the ordinance of God.

LORD'S SUPPER CELEBRATION

Let us be reminded of the supreme sacrifice which our Savior made to pay the debt we owe to God for our sins. Let us then partake "proclaiming His death" (declaring that we have confessed our sins and believe that He died in our place). Let us also partake vowing to grow in obedience by "eating and being nourished" by His Word and thus being filled with His Spirit.

May the Lord strengthen our faith as we receive the visible and physical elements as a reminder of the invisible and spiritual truth of salvation through the suffering and death of our only Savior and Lord. May we in this way "proclaim the Lord's death till He comes."

Visitors, who are members in good standing of a Bible-believing church, are encouraged to join us and to talk to the Session so that we may welcome you.

Short Report of Session Meeting of October 13, 2009

- Discussed various pastoral concerns.
- Had a time of sermon discussion.
- Discussed matters pertaining to plans for Presbytery, and filled credentials.
- Agreed to announce diaconal aid of $1000 to help church in Philippines with flooding.
- Hearing no objection from the Congregation, during our informal meeting last Sunday, we decided to fund expenses for the GNBS from the Mission Fund.
- Next meeting to be determined.
- Thank you for your prayers, The Session.
