Psalm 51:11-19 Tune: St. Minver, #122
Psalm 52:1-9 Tune: Torwood, #140
Psalm 149:6-9 Tune: Gainsborough, #65

"Here is a great duty required of us, and that is to appear for the relief of oppressed innocency. If we see the lives or livelihoods of any in danger of being taken away unjustly, we ought to bestir ourselves all we can to save them. . . . Though the persons be not such as we are under any particular obligation to, we must help them, out of a general zeal for justice. If any be set upon by force and violence, and it be in our power to rescue them, we ought to do it. . . . It is our duty, though it be with peril to ourselves, to hasten with help to them and not forbear to deliver them, not to be slack, or remiss, or indifferent, in such a case."

Matthew Henry (17th century English Puritan)

SCHEDULE

Sunday Morning Worship 10:00 AM
Catechism Class 11:30 AM
Sunday Fellowship Lunch
Sunday Afternoon Worship 1:30 PM
Wednesday Prayer Meeting 6:30 PM

We encourage everyone to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

There is a meal following the morning worship service. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table in the hallway.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
