

History : Genesis 10:8-12 & 11:1-9

Nimrod ('strong' ; 'he that rules') - as a mighty hunter established the first kingdom of the post-flood world. The Jewish Encyclopedia says "he led the people in rebellion against God". Nimrod set himself up before the Lord (10:9). He was the leader who found the plain in Shinar, and said let us build us a city and a tower . . . and make us a name, (11:2-4). After his death, his idolatrous wife, queen Semiramis, claimed Nimrod was now the sun-god. Later, when she gave birth to an illegitimate son named Tammuz, she claimed her son divinely conceived and was Nimrod reborn. The Devil was beguiling her (as he did Eve) into setting up a counterfeit to the Messianic Promise of Genesis 3:15. Her claim that her son was supernaturally conceived and that he was the promised seed led to a corrupt system of worship. This false religious counterfeit was taken to all the world when God confounded their language and scattered them abroad.

The first Jesuit missionaries to China wrote home to Rome : "We were astonished to find the counterpart to the Madonna and her child as devoutly worshipped in China as in Papal Rome itself. Shing Moo, the Holy Mother in China, is represented with a child in her arms, and a glory around her, exactly as if a Roman Catholic artist had been employed to set her up."
