

Psalm 93

- I. God is _____ Vs 1
- Reigneth-He _____ sovereign over everything and everyone
 - Clothed in majesty-He is _____ to everything and everyone
 - Clothed in strength-omnipotent, the all-powerful One, no one is _____ than God
 - Girded himself-being sovereign he has _____ himself to be who he is
 - World is stablished and cannot be moved-God's _____ will last as long as the Creator chooses it to last
- II. God is the eternal _____ Vs 2
- Throne is established of old Vs 2a
 - Throne-place where the sovereign sits to _____ his kingdom
 - Established-fixed, firm and cannot be _____ or overthrown
 - This rulership has _____ existed and will never end Vs 2b
- III. God is _____ over any attack Vs 3-4
- Floods-_____ of turbulence and uncontrolled destruction
 - Water is a wonderful thing _____ it becomes uncontrollable and threatening to mankind Vs 3
 - The sovereign God is ruler over his creation, even when it gets out of control for _____
 - The LORD on high-the _____ God; the psalmist clearly lets the reader know which God is being referenced
 - Mightier-more _____
 - Noise of many waters-the massive, deafening sound that seems to take control of one's _____ (Ill. The sound of a waterfall seems to grab the attention of the viewer)
 - The mighty waves of the sea-the waves of the ocean can be very _____ very frightening. When they are huge and threatening, no human force can _____ their destructive power.
 - The psalmist paints _____ pictures that the human mind can relate to and better understand the comparison he is making between the threats of _____ and the sovereign God.
- IV. God is trustworthy in what he _____ us Vs 5
- Testimonies-God's _____ about himself and what he is like
 - Very sure-build-up support to the hearer, can be trusted and relied upon because they will _____ change or be altered
 - Holiness-_____
 - Becometh thine house-God _____ in sinlessness, and _____ that God does is sinless
 - O LORD-sovereign one, a reaffirmation of God's being the _____ ruler
 - Forever-the facts of this psalm are _____ going to change