If sin was not pleasurable, then no one would ever be tempted.

Sin offers fleeting pleasure at the cost of long-term loss.

Hebrews

Think of Adam and Eve: The fruit was beautiful and tasted wonderful, but was it worth it?

Think of King David: Adultery was pleasurable for a moment, but was it worth it?

Think of Yourself: Your last sin was pleasurable for a moment, but was it worth it?

Sin always over promises and under fulfills.

Sermon: Hebrews 11:23-27

1. How could great wealth possibly serve as a distraction that prevents someone from serving God?

2. Could not being wealthy, but pursuing wealth possibly serve as a distraction from serving God? Explain.

3. Finding the right balance of money and things can be difficult even for Christians. Use the following verse to arrive at an applicable truth from each one.

A. Exodus 22:17

B. Ephesians 5:2-3

C. Matt. 6:19-21

D. Matt. 6:31-33

E. Proverbs 6:6-11

F. Proverbs 24:33-34

G. Proverbs 28:19

H. 1 Timothy 6:6-7

4. Some people cite Romans 13:1-7, 1 Timothy 3:1, and 1 Peter 2:13-17 as proof that Christians are to obey the government in every situation. However, today we observed that the parents of Moses were included in the list of examples of those with faith for rebelling against the government. How are we to balance the passages that speak of obedience to government with passages where believers were honored for disobeying the rulers like the midwives in Exodus 2. See also Daniel 3:8-18, Daniel 6:6-13, Acts 4:8,7-20. Discuss (don't fight).
