SERMON NOTES

“Omens”

Jude 12-13

1 Jude, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, To those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ: 2 Mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you. 3 Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ. 5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day; 7 as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. 8 Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of dignitaries. 9 Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, “The Lord rebuke you!” 10 But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished in the rebellion of Korah. 12 These are spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried about by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots; 13 raging waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please continue to pray for Richard Young and his health issues. He is now in Crofton Convalescent Center. Continued prayer for Carol and the family as they minister to him - for healing, comfort, peace & trust in the Lord.

Natalie C. - Please pray for my friend Ron who is suffering from an aggressive form of cancer. The doctors have said they can't do anything more for him. Pray for his salvation and Lord willing, for him to recover and for comfort for his wife and family during this difficult time.

Barbara Smith - Prayer for my neighborhood Tuesday evening Bible study. Many of the ladies have never studied God's Word — as we start studying the book of Daniel, please pray for the Holy Spirit to illumine our minds, encourage our spirits, and knit us together. Also to be mindful that worry is not a substitute for prayer — thanks Bradley for the connection to Psalm 37 — praying for people we love who are in tough places, that they will reach out for God's Hand — and that we can be useful — especially when distance separates us.

Raquel Smith - Praise! Jyshearia Woods (the mother of 3 small children with another one on the way) has received some help. Continued prayer for her and her situation.
