1 Corinthians 10:13 (NKJV)

No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

Truths

- “No temptation . . .”
- “Has overtaken you . . .”
 - Overtaken = _____.
 - This is a _____ temptation.
- “Except such as is common to man . . .”
 - Such as is—the kinds of temptations you face will be the same kinds of temptations that other people have faced, do face, and will face.
 - Common-to-man = anthropinos = pert. to being a person, human.
- “But God is faithful . . .”

Question: What truths about God should we remind ourselves of when we face temptation to sin?
- “He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able . . .”

How does God show his faithfulness?

 - God holds the _____ on what we will face.
 - We will not face anything that is beyond our _____.
 - He does not tempt us to _____.
- “But with the temptation will also make the way of escape . . .”
 - Question: when you are tempted to sin, where should you look?
 - Look for an _____!
- “That you may be able to endure it.”
 - Endure = to _____ something.
 - He doesn’t promise to take away the temptation, he promises that you will be able to survive the temptation.

What is his conclusion to this?
