

Psalm 101

October 4, 2015

Confession of Faith: Brendan Brower, Jared Kraker, Logan Lubbers

Introduction

- I. David expresses what kind of man he is resolved to be, as king of Israel.
- II. This applies to all of us as prophets, priests, and kings in Christ.

Resolved to Live with Integrity

I. The Public Declaration

- A. A man of integrity is true to God's standards in all of life.
- B. Being a man of integrity means worshiping, serving, and honoring the God of our salvation.
- C. What are the essential characteristics of this integrity? Mercy, judgment, and wisdom.

II. The Specific Resolutions

- A. I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes.
 1. The idea:
 2. The three parts of this:
- B. The positive is found in vs. 6.

III. The Needed Grace

- A. We want this to be our lasting resolution and a fading resolution.
- B. Just as David expresses his dependence on God to do this, so also do we.
