TEXT: Ecclesiastes 7:27 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account...

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

1 Kings 4:33 And he spake of trees...he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes. 34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth...

Invent: "...literally, to come to... Eng. to find... The action or operation of finding out something new...as...the invention of the art of printing..." (Web. 1828)

"Faust sold some of them at Paris...but the buyers finding a greater number upon him, than it was possible for several men to transcribe in their whole life, and the pages of each copy so exactly alike, that he was seiz'd, try'd and condemn'd for Magick and Sorcery, and was accordingly drag'd to the stake to be burnt; but upon discovering his Art, the parliament of Paris made an act to discharge him from all prosecution, in consideration of his admirable invention."

(Samuel Palmer, d. 1732, The General History of Printing;
<https://quod.lib.umich.edu/e/ecco/004898568.0001.000/1:5.1.4?rgn=div3;view=fulltext>)

"...what praise is due to printers...we must gratefully remember the first inventor of this divine secret; John Faust [c.1400-66]..." (Erasmus)

Proverbs 8:12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

2 Chronicles 26:15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men...to shoot arrows and great stones withal...

Amos 6:5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David;

Psalms 99:8...thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

Psalms 106:29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them. 39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

Romans 1:30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

Genesis 11:4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven...

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth:

1 Corinthians 1:22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

"Science: the religion that must not be questioned. It's time for the priesthood to be taken to task – and journalists aren't up to the job...All scientific results are in their nature provisional – they can be nothing else...Someone will come along, either the next day or the next decade...[and] find that conclusions based on earlier results were simplistic, rough-hewn – even wrong...scientific experiments don't end with a holy grail so much as an estimate of probability...no matter how fancy-schmancy your statistical technique, the output is always a probability level (a P-value), the 'significance' of which is left for you to judge – based on nothing more concrete or substantive than a feeling, based on the imponderables of personal or shared experience...I think it goes back to the mid-20th century, especially just after the second world war, when scientists...gave us such miracles as radar, penicillin and plastics; jet propulsion, teflon, mass vaccination and transistors...They were wizards, men like gods...who either had more than the regular human complement of leetle grey cells, or access to occult arcana denied to ordinary mortals...We didn't criticise them. We didn't engage with them – we bowed down before them...It wasn't long before we realised that science gave us pollution, radiation, agent orange and birth defects...They weren't priests after all, but frauds...all the time covering up the fact that they couldn't even agree among themselves about the science they were peddling...those who are scientists, or who pretend to be scientists, cling to the mantle of a kind of religious authority..."

(The Guardian, Henry Gee, senior editor of Nature)

2 Peter 1:16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation...

John 12:28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

"...it must be admitted that the apostle does not place the word spoken, even when uttered by the voice of God Himself, above the word written..."

(Robert Watts, The New Apologetic, 1890)

"Appearances change...Thomas had the word of Jesus [plus the Scriptures on the resurrection], but he wanted more...We too, want to walk by sight...We would often prefer 'the vision of the mount,' to 'the more sure word of prophecy'..."

(Primitive Monitor and Church Advocate, 1888)

Acts 17:10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.
11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

Deuteronomy 13:1 If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,
2 And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;
3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you...

Psalms 138:2...for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

1 Timothy 6:20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

"...what is falsely called knowledge..." (NKJV)

2 Timothy 3:1 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth...

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures...

"Science is the modern god. In a disturbingly large number of ways, the position of science in the mid-twentieth-century parallels that of religion in the mid-nineteenth...bewildered twentieth-century common men have a crude faith in their god which they do not care to have questioned too closely but which could be destroyed if it were demonstrated that their graven image has feet of clay..."

(David F. Horrobin, physiologist)

"There are many Christians who feel they must make the Bible correspond to the current scientific theories of the day...If evolution is considered a scientific fact then the Bible will be made to teach evolution. Those who take this approach (called concordists) go first to modern scientific theory to determine what is true, and then interpret the Bible in that light...Constant reinterpretation of the Scriptures to make it conform to modern science undermines the Bibles credibility. Scientist/theologian John Klotz perceptively summarizes the problem...'...The new god is science and therefore theology must adjust itself to the latest scientific findings. Too often the question in church circles is not, What do the Scriptures say? but rather, How must we change our understanding of Scripture because of the latest scientific finds?...This is not to suggest that the approaches, findings, and research of the various academic disciplines are to be ignored...it is a ministerial role, not a magisterial one...'...If Christians make modern science more authoritative than Scripture, the Bible is at the mercy of the latest finds of a changing science. Theologian John Whitcomb views the idea of making modern science more authoritative than Scripture as a double-revelation approach. He writes: 'This theory maintains that God has given to man two revelations of truth, each of which is fully authoritative in its own realm: the revelation of God in Scripture and the revelation of God in nature...The theologian is the God-appointed interpreter of Scripture, and the scientist is the God-appointed interpreter of nature...whenever there is an apparent conflict between the conclusions of the scientists and the conclusions of the theologian...the theologian must rethink his interpretation of the Scriptures at these points in such a way as to bring the Bible into harmony with the general consensus of scientific opinion...' [John Whitcomb, The Origin of the Solar System, 1964]...Whitcomb rightly chides those who hold to this double revelation view of interpreting Scripture. Taking this approach reduces the authority of God's Word and places it in the hands of finite scientists."

(Don Stewart)

Genesis 3:4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:
6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

2 Corinthians 10:7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance?...

John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

John 8:15 Ye judge after the flesh...

Isaiah 11:3...he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

4 But with righteousness shall he judge...

2 Corinthians 5:7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight.)

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

John 17:17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Isaiah 8:20 To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.
