

Welcome to our visitors

We extend a special welcome to our visitors. Please join us as we seek to glorify God in our worship and in our enjoying of the Sabbath Day.

Our Church: Dallas Reformed Presbyterian Church is a member congregation of the Midwest Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA). You can learn more about us at www.dallasrpc.org

This week:

The Lord's Day:	Morning worship	10:30 am
	Lunch/fellowship	12:15 pm
	Catechism	1:30 pm
	Afternoon worship	2:00 pm

Prayer Requests for the week:

- for our church: strength and endurance in our work, wisdom for our Elders, spiritual growth of our families, blessings from our times of family worship, for our seminary student (Rom), for Nick's Deacon training in 2018
- for those who are sick and recovering: Joe Smuts, Minsol Yang
- for our sister churches: the RPCNA and the Midwest Presbytery, for the persecuted church overseas
- for the Dallas/Fort Worth area: that the gospel would be proclaimed, that the church would worship as God has commanded, that Christ's Kingship would be recognized, that God's law would be respected, that the Sabbath would be kept

A Congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)
Meeting at: 1008 West Erwin Avenue, McKinney, TX 75069

9 And Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the Lord. Then Samuel cried out to the Lord for Israel, and the Lord answered him. 10 Now as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the Lord thundered with a loud thunder upon the Philistines that day, and so confused them that they were overcome before Israel. 11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and drove them back as far as below Beth Car. 12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer, saying, "Thus far the Lord has helped us."

WLC Q. 129. What is required of superiors towards their inferiors? A. It is required of superiors, according to that power they receive from God, and that relation wherein they stand, to love, pray for, and bless their inferiors; to instruct, counsel and admonish them; countenancing, commending, and rewarding such as do well; and discountenancing, reproving, and chastising such as do ill; protecting, and providing for them all things necessary for soul and body: and, by grave, wise, holy, and exemplary carriage, to procure glory to God, honor to themselves, and so to preserve that authority which God hath put upon them.

I. A plot to kill David

WLC Q. 45. How doth Christ execute the office of a king? A. Christ executeth the office of a king, in calling out of the world a people to himself, and giving them officers, laws, and censures, by which he visibly governs them; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect, rewarding their obedience, and correcting them for their sins, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferings, restraining and overcoming all their enemies, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory and their good: and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the gospel.
