Quotation

"Finally. Resuming his general exhortations, he again enjoins them to be strong,—to summon up courage and vigour; for there is always much to enfeeble us, and we are ill fitted to resist. But when our weakness is considered, an exhortation like this would have no effect, unless the Lord were present, and stretched out his hand to render assistance, or rather, unless he supplied us with all the power. Paul therefore adds, in the Lord. As if he had said, "You have no right to reply, that you have not the ability; for all that I require of you is, be strong in the Lord." To explain his meaning more fully, he adds, in the power of his might, which tends greatly to increase our confidence, particularly as it shews the remarkable assistance which God usually bestows upon believers. If the Lord aids us by his mighty power, we have no reason to shrink from the combat."

Who we Are:

Westminster: As historic reformed believers, we recognize that in God's gracious providence he has provide His Church with many creeds and confessions. Our Church subscribes to the Westminster Standards – which encompass the teachings of the Bible in the best human expression.

Presbyterian: In our form of church government and practice we are presbyterian – simply put, we believe in a church government that is instituted by God and is entrusted to His ambassadors; ministers and elders in their several bodies.

Church: God is calling a people unto Himself, and He has a special care for his bride, the Church! Where His special care is seen in the provision of growth, worship, and practice as we are fitly joined together into a whole as the Bride of Christ.
