ISRAEL (At The Time Of Jesus)

Luke 1:1–4 (NKJV)

1 Inasmuch as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those things which have been fulfilled among us, 2 just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word delivered them to us, 3 it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, 4 that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were instructed.

Outline:

1. Not the first narrative of the life of Christ

Luke 1:1-4 (NKJV)

Why another Gospel narrative?

Why another Gospel narrative:

- Gospel accounts have different authors:
 1. Different perspectives
 2. Different audiences
 3. Different purposes

Everything Jesus ever said or did

Matthew: ● ● ●

Mark: ● ●

Luke: ● ● ●

John: ●

Why another Gospel narrative:

- Luke's narrative:
 1. Perspective of a Gentile
 2. Audience is Gentile
 3. Luke's two-fold purpose:

First — to write an orderly account of the life of Jesus Christ.

Second — to confirm the teaching on Jesus Christ.

Application:

- Are you a Gentile?
- Do you know the chronology of Christ's life?
- Do you “know the certainty” of your instruction?
- Do you understand the incarnation?
- Do you understand the Hypostatic Union?
