“The devil knows that one hour of close, spiritual, and hearty converse with God in prayer is able to pull down what he has been contriving and building for many a year.”

“However sweet and excellent these foretastes of heaven are, heaven itself will be an unspeakable surprise to the saints.”

“There is enough in one God to eternally fill and satisfy all blessed souls in heaven without the addition of any creature-comfort.”

“I persuade you not to put off, but to regulate natural affections. To rightly bound and manage them would set you among the best of Christians.”

John Flavel (17th century English Puritan)

There is a meal following the morning worship service. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
