

- A. We continue, as at the last round of prep/LS/applic, to treat passages that teach us how to show love to the brother who sinned.
- B. Necessary instruction, this is!

Loving the Brother Who Sinned (4) Dealing With Those Who Refuse to Hear

I. With Whom?

- A. Of whom does our Lord speak - in which situation is He giving us direction?

- B. In this particular situation, we can appreciate the necessity and value of this instruction.

II. How?

- A. In such situations, Christ did not leave us with a general admonition “love”; rather, He gave us specific instructions how to deal with the brother.

- B. Why are these the actions we must take, and why is this the order to follow?

III. Until When?

- A. If the brother does not repent, the process ends when the church declares him to be outside the church, and views him as an unbeliever.

- B. Why is this last remedy necessary?
