

The Faith Of Noah

Hebrews 11:7

The faith of Noah was an obedient faith. James 2:14–17

“True faith always has actions to support its claim.” John MacArthur

Deplorable spiritual environment is not an excuse for weak pigmy faith. Genesis 6:1–3, 5

Exposure to the word of God is a must for avoiding a weak pigmy faith. Hebrews 11:7a; Genesis 6:6–7, 11–14, 17–18

A reverence for the word of God is a must for avoiding a weak pigmy faith. Hebrews 11:7b

A willingness to be God’s rebuke of society is a must for avoiding a weak pigmy faith.

Hebrews 11:7c. Noah’s life was a rebuke to the wicked of his day.

Noah had a message that was a rebuke to the wicked of his day.

2 Peter 2:4–5

Understanding the saving power of obedient faith is a must to avoiding a weak pigmy faith.

Hebrews 11:7d

Conclusion: How badly do we need a Noah like faith.

Matthew 24:37–39

1 Peter 3:20–21