

INTRODUCTION

1. Today is the first Sunday of November.
2. As we embark on a new month, I want to begin a series of studies on being thankful and want to challenge you to consider of month or better a lifetime of cultivating thanksgiving.
3. Instead of complaining when something doesn't go your way, I want to encourage you to thank God for it and know that He works "all things for good to those who love God and to those who are called according to His purpose" (Rom.8:28).
4. To help you do this, I would like to talk about "God's Will for Your Life."
5. It doesn't only include being thankful.
6. Being thankful is just one of the necessary ingredients in God's will for your life.
7. As we begin, I would like to have you take God's Word and turn with me to Ephesians chapter 5.
8. I want to begin our study looking at verses 15-17.
9. I believe the will of God is an important matter.
10. It's so important that Paul has something to say about it in Ephesians 5:15-17.

11. He first says to see to it that you “be careful how you walk” or as the NKJV says “walk circumspectly.”
12. The word “walk” is peripateo (pres.act.ind.), which means, “to conduct one’s life” (Fritz Rienecker, The Linguistic Key to the Greek NT) or “to order one's behavior” (Wuest) or literally to “behave” (LN)
 - a) Paul said to the Corinthians in 1 Cor.3:3 that they were “still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving [peripateo] like mere men?”
 - b) He told the Thessalonians that they “should abound more and more, just as you received from us how you ought to walk [peripateo] and to please God” (1 Thess.4:1).
13. The word “circumspectly” Gr.akribos, means, “accurately, carefully” (Rienecker), or “exactly” (Wuest). “The idea here is, that they were to take special pains to guard against the temptations around them, and to live as they ought to” (Albert Barnes, Albert Barnes’ Notes on the Bible).

“As believers walk through the spiritual mine field of the world, they are to be constantly alert to every danger that Satan puts in their way” (John MacArthur, Ephesians).

14. So Paul tells the Ephesians to be careful how they conduct themselves; be alert. You have to conduct yourselves as those who are wise and not fools “redeeming the time, because the days are evil.”

15. I think it is important to note at this point if you're not conducting your life in this manner it is impossible to know what the will of God is for you life.
16. He's not going to reveal to you anymore than what He has already revealed.
17. In other words, if you don't obey what is the clear will of God, as noted here in Ephesians 5:15, then don't expect Him to reveal anything else.
18. Paul goes on to say that we are to walk carefully as wise (see Proverbs 2).
19. In Verse 17 he says, “So then do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.”
20. It is clear from this verse alone that we are to “understand what the will of the Lord is.”
21. But before we can progress further in what he is about to say we have to back up to chapter 1.
22. In Ephesians 1:1 he uses an address to these believers that tells us where the will of God begins. Notice what he says in v.1.

I. The Will of God Begins at Salvation

- A. You Cannot Know the Will of God Apart from Knowing God
1. Paul addresses the Ephesians as saints which is something he could not have done if they had not been saved (Eph.1:1).
 2. This is true of all his epistles
 - a) He said to the Romans - “To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints” (Rom.1:7)
 - b) To the Corinthians he addressed them as “the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours” (1 Cor.1:2)
 - c) He later challenged the Corinthians on their reception of the Gospel in chapter 15:1-2:

“Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, by which also you are saved if you hold fast that word which I preached to you— unless you believed in vain.”

d) He made the same statement to the Colossians:

“And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and irreproachable in His sight– if indeed you continue in faith, grounded and steadfast and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached to every creature under heaven, of which, I, Paul, became a minister” (Col.1:21-23).

3. All the wisdom and Word of God begins at Salvation

a) In Matthew 13:10-11 the disciples asked Jesus ““Why do You speak to them in parables? He answered and said to them, ‘Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.”

b) Again, Paul writing to the Corinthians, tells them that “Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches the deep things of God” (1 Cor.2:9-10).

- c) In verse 14 he says, “But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.”
- B. The Will of God is to Repent and Surrender Your Life to Jesus Christ
- 1. John the Baptist told the Pharisees and Sadducees that came to his baptism to “bear fruits worthy of repentance” (Mat.3:8)
 - 2. When Jesus began His ministry He said in Mark 1:15 “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel.”
 - 3. Paul said this is God’s will “who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth” (1 Tim.2:4).
 - 4. Peter said, “The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance” (2 Pet.3:9).
 - 5. These two verses stress the responsibility of man to repent at the hearing of the Gospel.
 - 6. The death of Jesus on the cross was sufficient for every man to believe, therefore, he calls all men to repent:

Acts 17:30-31 - "Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead."

II. The Will of God Continues After You Are Saved

God's will is not to save you and then abandon you? God wants you to obey Him and experience the fullness of joy that comes from the Holy Spirit.

In the words of Galatians 5:16, "But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh."

Galatians 5:22-23 says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law."

A. God's Will is that You Daily Live Your Life Under the Control of the Holy Spirit

That means your thought life, your speech, your attitude, your actions—all are controlled by the Holy Spirit.

1. Ephesians 5:17 says you are "not to be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is.”

2. Then in the next verse he tells you what “the will of the Lord is.”
3. He says, “And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit” (v.18)
4. The verb “be filled” is pleroo (pres.pass.imp) which is a command that can only be obeyed when you die to self. The passive voice is used here and indicates that you are the recipient of the action, which means you don’t fill yourself; the Spirit fills or controls you. You have to do what is necessary to not hinder the process. What hinders being controlled by the Spirit is sin.
5. Paul says in verse 2 of chapter 5 of Ephesians that we are to “walk in love” and not let “fornication, all uncleanness or covetousness...even be named among you, as is fitting for saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, which is not fitting, but rather giving of thanks” (vv.3-4).
6. In verse 6-8 he says not to “let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes on the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not be partakers with them. For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light.”

7. In verse 11 he further says not to have “fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them.”
8. All of this has to be either affirmed or denied in order to carry out verse 18.
9. Spirit-filling is different than Spirit-indwelling
 - a) Spirit-indwelling occurs one time at salvation (Eph.1:13; 1 Cor.12:13)
 - b) Spirit-filling occurs repeatedly as you yield yourself to the Spirit’s control (Col.3:16; Gal.5:16)

If God desires you live under His control, then He also desires for you to be holy.

In other words...

B. God’s Will is that You Live a Separated Life

In other words...

1. You were called to be holy
 - a) Eph.1:3 - “Just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love.”

Selected Scriptures

- b) Eph.2:10 - "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them."
2. Holiness is not an option for the believer
- a) Romans 6:22 says since we have been "set free from sin, and [have] become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life."
 - b) 1 Thess.4:7 says that "God did not call us to uncleanness, but in holiness."
3. Holiness is a daily pursuit
- a) We are to "present [our] bodies" as "a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God" and "not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of [our] mind, that [we] may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God" (Rom.12:1-2).
 - b) If you are not being holy you cannot know what God's will is.
 - c) Colossians 3:5 says that we are to "put to death [our] members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.”

- d) Peter said in 1 Pet.1:14-15, “as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct.”
- e) When you are doing that then you are obeying the will of God to be holy.

Repentance that reflects saving faith, Spirit control that illustrates direction and power, holiness that is repulsed at sin.

God wants you to...

C. God's Will is that You Live Your Life Completely Surrendered to God

That means...

1. You are to be submissive to authorities (1 Pet.2:13-15)
2. You are to be submissive to one another (Eph.5:21)
3. You are to be submissive to God (Jas.4:7)

Let's not forget that...

D. God's Will is that You Accept Suffering as a Gracious Gift from God

1. This is definitely an issue many question
2. The problem of suffering is due to sin but Paul says it's also God's will for believers

Phil.1:29-30 - "For to you it has been granted on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me."

3. He told Timothy that this would be the result of living godly

2 Tim.3:12 - "Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution."

4. Jesus said "In the world you will have tribulation" (John 16:33)

5. All of this is because they persecuted Jesus

"Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me" (Jn.15:20-21).

Lastly we should say...

E. God's Will is that You Have a Thankful Attitude

You and I must remember...

1. God hates grumbling and complaining

- a) That's why when Paul said to "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," he also said to "do all things without murmuring and disputing, that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world" (Phil.2:14-15).
- b) When the children of Israel sent 12 spies into the land of Canaan and ten out of the twelve gave a bad report and the people believed them, God caused them to wandering in the wilderness for 40 years.

He said, "The carcasses of you who have murmured against Me shall fall in this wilderness, all of you who were numbered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above" (Num.14:29).

- c) When the sons of Korah complained and rebelled against the Lord, God caused the earth to open “its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men with Korah, with all their goods” (Num.16.32) and then “a fire came out from the Lord and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense” (Num.16:35).

2. God, on the other hand, loves a heart filled with thanksgiving
 - a) Paul said in Ephesians 5 what should not be named among saints but then said “but rather giving of thanks” (v.4).
 - b) Thanksgiving reveals a grateful heart

E.M. Bounds said, “Thanksgiving is the expression of an inward conscious gratitude to God for mercies received. It is an inward emotion of the soul, involuntarily arising therein. It is born of meditation on God’s grace and mercy, and it is opposed to all murmurings at God’s dealings with us. Gratitude and murmuring never abide in the same heart at the same time” (The Essentials of Prayer, pp.37-38, 40).

- c) We are to be thankful and be known as a people who are thankful

- (1) Paul said, "In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thess.5:18).
- (2) In Philippians 4:6 he said, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God."

The will of God is not only for you to be saved but also that your life reflects the changes the Gospel brings in your life.

III. The Will of God Addresses All Areas of Your Life

Even what we refer to as grey areas.

Ask yourself the following questions when you encounter a grey area:

A. Will It Be Spiritually Profitable?

1 Cor.6:12 - "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any."

Some things can be wrong if they keep you from doing things that enhance your spiritual life.

B. Will It Edify?

Will it put you on the path to greater spiritual maturity?

1 Cor.10:23 - "All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful; all things are lawful for me, but not all things edify."

C. Will It Lead to Excess?

Heb.12:1 says, "Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us."

Will it hinder you as you run the Christian race? Being out late Saturday night is not a sin, but it may not be the best choice if it leave you too tired to concentrate at church Sunday morning.

D. Will It Bring Me Under Its Control?

1 Cor.6:12 again says, "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any."

We all know it's wrong to be controlled by drink or drugs (I consider cigarettes a form of a drug because of the nicotine and it's control). But it is also wrong to be controlled by music, sports or tv?

God's Will for Your Life

- E. Will It Cause Me to Use My Freedom in Christ As a Cover for Catering to Evil, Sinful Desires?

1 Pet.2:16 says, “as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God.”

- F. Will It Violate the Lordship of Christ in My Life?
(Rom.14:2-8)

Don't let others talk yo into doing what you don't think the Lord would have you to do.

- G. Will Doing This Set a Good or a Bad Example for Others to Follow?

1 Cor.8:9 says, “But beware lest somehow this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak.”

- H. Will It Cause Non-Believers to See a Difference in My Life?

- I. Would Jesus Do It?

- J. Will It Glorify God?

CONCLUSION

1. If you apply all these principles then it will reveal who is controlling your desires.
2. Psalm 37:4 says, “Delight yourself also in the Lord, And He shall give you the desires of your heart.”
3. George Mueller said, “I seek at the beginning to get my heart into such a state that it has no will of its own in regard to a given matter. Nine-tenths of the trouble with people generally is just here. Nine-tenths of the difficulties are over come when our hearts are ready to do the Lord's will, whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His will is.

Having done this, I do not leave the result to feeling or simple impression. If so, I make myself liable to great delusions.

I seek the Will of the Spirit of God through, or in connection with, the Word of God. The Spirit and the Word must be combined. If I look to the Spirit alone without the Word, I lay myself open to great delusions also. If the Holy Ghost guides us at all, He will do it according to the Scriptures and never contrary to them.

Next I take into account providential circumstances. These often plainly indicate God's Will in connection with His Word and Spirit.

I ask God in prayer to reveal His Will to me aright.

Thus, through prayer to God, the study of the Word, and reflection, I come to a deliberate judgment according to the best of my ability and knowledge, and if my mind is thus at peace, and continues so after two or three more petitions, I proceed accordingly. In trivial matters, and in transactions involving most important issues, I have found this method always effective”

4. Are you obeying God's will?
5. Are you saved?
6. Have you been forgiven of all your sin?
7. Have you repented of your sin and surrendered your life to Jesus Christ?
8. If you are saved, are you being controlled by the Holy Spirit?
9. The answer to that question is revealed in the next.
10. Are you living a holy life, being submissive, suffering if need be for your faith?
11. Are you thankful?
