

PSALM 119
The Blessing of Walking in God's Law
Psalm 119:1-8

January 1, 2023
Mac Williams, Pastor

*"I am convinced that the Psalm reflects the challenge of walking with God as an exile in a hostile world."
- Brian Borgman*

1. True _____ in life comes from walking in the Law of the Lord.

- a. Blessing is promised to those who _____ themselves by God's Law.
- b. Blessing is promised to those who are not content with outward obedience, but seek Him with all their _____.
- c. Blessing is promised to those who do not intentionally go after things that are wrong.

2. The most fundamental reason for diligently obeying God's Word is that they are the _____ of the one true God.

*"To gain the heart of a full obedience it is good to consider the authority of God in His Word."
- Thomas Manton*

3. Every believer must humble themselves before the Lord and _____ for His enabling to do what He requires.

- a. _____ is not an excuse for disobedience.

*"We might as soon create a world, as create in our hearts one pulse of spiritual life. And yet, our inability does not cancel our obligation."
- Charles Bridges*

- b. It is with God's help that one is given a heart to fully obey God's commandments—while also realizing perfect righteousness is only available by faith in _____.

- c. There is always more to _____ from God's revelation in His Word. The natural response to growth in understanding is heartfelt thanksgiving to God.

*"Conceit of knowledge is the greatest enemy to knowledge, and the strongest proof of ignorance."
- Charles Bridges*

- d. Believers are well aware of their _____ and know that apart from the ongoing presence of God they have no hope of walking in His ways.