QUOTE

"We may possess earthly comforts, but we must not be possessed by them. We may use them as flowers to smell on, but not as garlands to crown ourselves with them. We may, in our pilgrimage, walk with them as staves in our hands, seeking a country which is above; but we may not load ourselves with them and bear them as burdens on our backs. We may make them our encouragements, but not our confidence. We may mind them as our accessories, but we may not love them as our principal happiness."

By: William Spurstowe (17th century English Puritan)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
