

Peter's Second Letter

REMINDEES:

THE FOUR MOST IMPORTANT REALITIES
FOR CHRISTIANS TO REMEMBER
THROUGHOUT LIFE

2 PETER 1:12–21

Scripture Reading

King Jesus promised to return.

REMINDER #1:

THE BIBLE ISN'T FICTION

ON WHAT DOES YOUR CERTAINTY REST?

ON WHAT DOES YOUR CERTAINTY REST?

You can be certain that the promises of Jesus's return are true . . .

1. based on Peter's eyewitness testimony (1:16-18).

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?
2
3
4

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?
3
4

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?
3	Could people really struggle with a long delay in Jesus's return after only 30 years?
4

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?
3	Could people really struggle with a long delay in Jesus's return after only 30 years?
4	Why did so many people in the next few centuries question whether Peter wrote it?

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?	Peter, for whom Greek was a second language, indicates in 1 Peter 5:12 that he may have dictated his first letter to Silas, a Roman citizen.
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?
3	Could people really struggle with a long delay in Jesus's return after only 30 years?
4	Why did so many people in the next few centuries question whether Peter wrote it?

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?	Peter, for whom Greek was a second language, indicates in 1 Peter 5:12 that he may have dictated his first letter to Silas, a Roman citizen.
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?	If Peter is writing the second letter by himself, he'd likely refer to himself by his birthname.
3	Could people really struggle with a long delay in Jesus's return after only 30 years?
4	Why did so many people in the next few centuries question whether Peter wrote it?

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?	Peter, for whom Greek was a second language, indicates in 1 Peter 5:12 that he may have dictated his first letter to Silas, a Roman citizen.
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?	If Peter is writing the second letter by himself, he'd likely refer to himself by his birthname.
3	Could people really struggle with a long delay in Jesus's return after only 30 years?	Yes, Jesus predicted it would happen in Matthew 24-25, and Paul experienced the same thing even 15 years earlier (!) when he wrote to the church in Thessalonica.
4	Why did so many people in the next few centuries question whether Peter wrote it?

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

	Question	Answer
1	Why are the writing styles of his two letters so different?	Peter, for whom Greek was a second language, indicates in 1 Peter 5:12 that he may have dictated his first letter to Silas, a Roman citizen.
2	Why call yourself "Peter" (1st) then "Simeon Peter" (2nd)?	If Peter is writing the second letter by himself, he'd likely refer to himself by his birthname.
3	Could people really struggle with a long delay in Jesus's return after only 30 years?	Yes, Jesus predicted it would happen in Matthew 24-25, and Paul experienced the same thing even 15 years earlier (!) when he wrote to the church in Thessalonica.
4	Why did so many people in the next few centuries question whether Peter wrote it?	In the first three centuries after Jesus, several fake letters of Peter were in circulation, including "The Gospel of Peter" and "The Apocalypse of Peter." Questioning it doesn't mean denying it.

<< CAN YOU TRUST PETER'S LETTER? >>

Suggest a motive for . . .

1. Peter's humility.
2. Peter's reason for writing.

ON WHAT DOES YOUR CERTAINTY REST?

You can be certain that the promises of Jesus's return are true

1. based on Peter's eyewitness testimony (1:16-18).
2. based on the Bible's written testimony (1:19-21).

King Jesus promised to return.

REMINDER #1:

THE BIBLE ISN'T FICTION