

Set Free from Law's Curse

Galatians 3:13-14

East Berlin Community Church
Pastor Keith A. Mosebrook
November 4, 2018

Introduction

- The 2010 Chilean Miners rescue
- The joy of being set free
- Many today are in spiritual bondage
  - In bondage to sin
    - Sinners by birth—Romans 5:12
    - Sinners by choice—Romans 3:9-12, 23
- How can one experience freedom from bondage to sin?
  - False teachers in Galatia—through keeping the Law
  - Problem: Law was never meant to set a person free.—Galatians 3:10
    - Law as a reflection of God's holiness. Romans 7:12
    - Law has to be perfectly kept.—James 2:10
    - Failure to perfectly keep law puts us under the "curse of God"

Set Free from Law's Curse

A. WHO: Jesus Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the Law.—Galatians 3:13

1. Difference between "justification" and "redemption"
  - a. Justification – to be "declared right in God's sight"—legally free
  - b. Redemption—"bought and set free"—actual freedom
2. Jesus Christ pays the price for our redemption and sets us free.

B. HOW: Jesus Christ becomes accursed for us!—Galatians 3:13

1. Jesus Christ was sinless, fulfilling perfectly the Law. 1 Peter 2:22
2. How did Jesus Christ become a "curse for us"?
  - a. In a small way, by the means of his death by crucifixion
    - 1) Deuteronomy 21:23
    - 2) Jewish normal, careful treatment of a dead body
    - 3) Criminal hung on a pole as a visible representation of rejection by God
  - b. In larger part, by the meaning of His death—substitutionary "for us"
    - 1) Jesus Christ willfully took our place and died in our stead.
    - 2) Jesus Christ became "sin" for us—2 Corinthians 5:21
    - 3) Our guilt and punishment was placed on Him—Isaiah 53:5-6; 1 Peter 2:24
    - 4) Jesus PAID IN FULL for our redemption—1 Pet. 1:18-19; Eph. 1:7
    - 5) The cross as a "stumbling block" to Jews
3. Our Response: Praise and worship. Revelation 5:9, 11

B. WHY: The Benefits of Jesus becoming a curse for us—Galatians 3:14

1. Gentiles can now enter into the blessings of Abraham
  - a. Jesus Christ removes the barrier, the Law, that separates Jews and Gentiles—Eph. 2:12-16
  - b. We therefore are part of the household of God, and the blessings of Abraham flow to us.
2. We receive the promised Holy Spirit by faith—Galatians 3:14
  - a. The indwelling Holy Spirit is the guarantee of our future redemption. Eph. 1:13-14
  - b. Redemptions present effect on us—1 Corinthians 6:19-20