M’Cheyne: Treasuring The Word Above All Else

Hebrews 2:1-4

Pastor Robert Murray M’Cheyne (1813-1843) lived a short and zealous life for Jesus. He died in an at the tender age of 29 in a typhus epidemic. But he was keenly attuned to laying hold of Christ, and looked to the one CERTAIN place where such knowledge resides: the Word of God. Consider how God would have you plan to be in the Scriptures in 2012!

I. What have you _____?

II. The _____ was declared by the _____ and _____ by those who _____.

III. God bore witness by _____, _____, miracles, and _____.
