

O Love That Will Not Let Me Go, Chapters 12-13 | 11/6/22

Chapter 12 | Rubbing Hope Into The Reality Of Death | Tim Keller (87)

- The hope of Christians (1 Thes. 4:13)
- The grief of death (87-88)
- The distinctiveness of Christian hope (89)
- Lastly Christianity gives you the assurance of an afterlife. (91)
- The Bible doesn't say don't fear death because it's natural. The Bible says don't fear death because it's been defeated. (92)

Chapter 13 | Hope Is A Glorious Grace | John Owen (93)

- "Hope is a glorious grace..."
- Why more people don't enjoy this kind of hope (94)
- Illustration of going on a voyage (94)

Next Steps: Chapters 12-13

1. How does Keller counsel us to view the grief of death? (87-88)
2. How does the Christian have a distinctive hope compared to other religions and cultures? (89)
3. What is the point of Owen's illustration about going on a voyage? (94)
4. How should Christians pursue specific hopes of eternal glory? (93, 95)