

I. The Sinfulness of Idleness (vv 6, 14-15).*A. Considering the Context:B. The Sin Exposed: Idleness1) The Sinfulness of Idleness

- a) Idleness is contrary to the Light of Nature (Gen 2:15, 1:28)
- b) Idleness is contrary to the Word of God (1st, 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th, 10th Commandments; Col 3:23-24)
- c) Idleness is against the apostolic Faith delivered to the saints (2 Thes 2:15)
- d) Idleness is the fount of many sins.

2) The Commonness of this Sin.3) Common Fruits of Idleness:

- a) Undue delay or neglect in fulfilling our duties.
- b) Murmuring and complaining.
- c) Inordinate affections for entertainment over our duties
- d) Lust (Ezk 16:49; 2 Sam 11:4)
- e) Discontentment and Despair

4) Answering Objections

- a) Objection 1: What about recreation?
- b) Objection 2: What about retirement?

C. Church Discipline is to be carried out upon the Idle.1) Admonition (1 Thes 5:14)2) Suspension from the Lord's Table3) The Public Nature of this DisciplineD. The Attitude of Church Discipline

- 1) With love, which is not contrary to discipline
- 2) With the call to repentance, not gossiping amongst ourselves
- 3) With the desire for restoration

E. Uses from the Text

- 1) We need to recover sense of shame for sin.
- 2) We are to repent of our idleness and look to Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of our sins.
- 3) We are to persevere with fear and trembling.
- 4) We are to heed this warning now, lest we fall into idleness, or continue in and compound our sin.

- 5) We are to turn away from our sin, but then accordingly turn to righteousness.

II. The Goodness of Work (vv 7-13).*A. Godly example of work (vv 7-9)1) The Apostle's example

- a) In the work of the ministry: (i) Shepherding (1 Thes 2:11); (ii) Preaching (1 Thes 2:9); (iii) Writing (2 Thes 3:17); (iv) Reading (2 Tim 4:13); (v) Suffering (2 Cor 11:23, 28)

b) In common work

- 2) Use, Elders are to be an example as shepherds to the flock of a godly work ethic.
- 3) Use, Be godly examples to others and follow godly examples of others

B. The Warning to those who do not work1) Considering this command in light of the petition, *Give us this day our daily bread2) The Basis of the Command (Gen 3:19a)3) The Nature of the Command — Primarily about life in the Church, but the law is to be thoroughly applied in every area of life (Micah 6:8)C. Uses from the Point (vv 11-13)1) We are to hate evil and love good2) We are to have a high value of work (v 12a)a) We are to value all kinds of work (Pr 31:27-28)b) We are to know and delight in the goodness of worki. For it is a part of the very good creation made by Godii. For the shortness of life reminds us of the need to be diligent in our work (Psa 90:12, 17)iii. Testified to in nature by the sweetness of rest (Eccl 5:12)iv. Benefit to others, particularly our posterity (Pr 13:22)3) We are to work as Christians (vv 12b-13):a) With humilityb) With contentmentc) With enduranced) With longevity