The Heidelberg Catechism

1. Q. What is your only comfort in life and death?

A. That I am not my own,[1] but belong with body and soul, both in life and in death,[2] to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ.[3] He has fully paid for all my sins with His precious blood, and has set me free from all the power of the devil.[5] He also preserves me in such a way[6] that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head;[7] indeed, all things must work together for my salvation.[8] Therefore, by His Holy Spirit He also assures me of eternal life[9] and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live for Him.[10]

28. Q. What does it benefit us to know that God has created all things and still upholds them by His providence?

A. We can be patient in adversity,[1] thankful in prosperity,[2] and with a view to the future we can have a firm confidence in our faithful God and Father that no creature shall separate us from His love;[3] for all creatures are so completely in His hand that without His will they cannot so much as move.[4]

Short Report of Session Meeting of Dec. 28/10

- Discussed various pastoral matters including participation at Lord's Supper on Nov. 21. Also agreed on letter of recommendation for Roy Burrell to enroll in Seminary with RITS.
- Decided to begin membership discussions on Jan. 9 (if possible) and these will take place immediately after the regular discussions. All are welcome and encouraged to stay for the membership discussions. It would be good if we all could help in saving time so that we start eating sooner, clean up quicker, and have a bit shorter time of singing and regular discussion.
- Agreed to plan to have Lord's Supper again on Jan. 16.
- Had a time of sermon discussion.
- Next meeting, Lord willing, is planned for Jan. 11/11.
- Thank you for your prayers, The Session.
