

Sermon Notes for Kids

Date _____

Title _____

Text _____

God tells us we need to fight our _____

Things like fear and insecurity can _____ us

God says, "Stop it. I have something _____ for you."

Most people are _____ about the economy.

Sins like greed and selfishness can flourish in our _____

Christmas time can give opportunity to covetousness and _____

Love each other by being content people of confident _____ in God

Your character must be free from the _____ of money

Loving money is living for wealth and _____

The love of money pursues money as the source of security and _____ Covetousness never _____

The love of money and trust in _____ are mutually exclusive

The love of money kills the love of _____ Greed is contrary to loving the body of _____

This is the remedy to greed and loving money- contentment and satisfaction in _____

Contentment is the settled sense of not needing something else to be

For He Himself _____

When Scripture speaks God _____

I will never desert you, neither will I ever _____ you

Better to have nothing and have _____, than to have everything and not have _____.

To have everything without God is to have _____. To have nothing but God is to have _____.

A confident _____

The Lord is my _____

A confession of _____

I shall not be _____

A God-centered _____

What shall man do to _____?

Greed and covetousness are sins of _____

The promises of God are our security and _____