

Mary's Magnificat

Luke 1:46-55

Jesus had not yet been born. The nativity scene had not yet occurred. Nonetheless, Mary's celebration of Jesus' first advent is a great model for our own Christmas worship this season.

The infinite became the finite, the eternal entered time and became subject to its conditions, the immutable became mutable, the invisible became visible, the Creator became created, the sustainer of all became dependent, the Almighty became infirm. God became man that he may die, and by his death destroy the works the devil and take away our sin.
