	Catechism	1:30 pm
	Afternoon worship	2:00 pm
	Psalm practice (3rd week)	3:30 pm

Prayer Requests for the week:

- for our church: strength and endurance in our work, wisdom for our Elders, spiritual growth of our families, blessings from our times of family worship, for our foster care families, for our seminary students (Chris, Rom, and Tom)
- for those who are sick: Judy Austin, Tom Rogers (Manfreda), Bill Cafferty (Silva), Melva Grandon (Koller)
- for our sister churches: the RPCNA and the Midwest Presbytery, for the persecuted church overseas
- for the Dallas/Fort Worth area: that the gospel would be proclaimed, that the church would worship as God has commanded, that Christ's Kingship would be recognized, that God's law would be respected, that the Sabbath would be kept

“Thus you shall do to Aaron and his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. Seven days you shall consecrate them. And you shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. You shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it. Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and sanctify it. And the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar must be holy.”

WLC Q. 160. What is required of those that hear the Word preached? A. It is required of those that hear the Word preached, that they attend upon it with diligence, preparation, and prayer; examine what they hear by the Scriptures; receive the truth with faith, love, meekness, and readiness of mind, as the Word of God; meditate, and confer of it; hide it in their hearts, and bring forth the fruit of it in their lives. WCF 6. Chapter 19. Of the Law of God. 6. Although true believers be not under the law, as a covenant of works, to be thereby justified, or condemned; yet is it of great use to them, as well as to others; in that, as a rule of life informing them of the will of God, and their duty, it directs and binds them to walk accordingly ... It is likewise of use to the regenerate, to restrain their corruptions, in that it forbids sin: and the threatenings of it serve to shew what even their sins deserve; and what afflictions, in this life, they may expect for them, although freed from the curse thereof threatened in the law. The promises of it, in like manner, shew them God's approbation of obedience, and what blessings they may expect upon the performance thereof: [Ps. 37:11] although not as due to them by the law as a covenant of works...

WCF 5, Of Providence, 4. The almighty power, unsearchable wisdom, and infinite goodness of God so far manifest themselves in His providence, that it extendeth itself even to the first fall, and all other sins of angels and men; and that not by a bare permission, but such as hath joined with it a most wise and powerful bounding, and otherwise ordering, and governing of them, in a manifold dispensation, to His own holy ends; yet so, as the sinfulness thereof proceedeth only from the creature, and not from God, who, being most holy and righteous, neither is nor can be the author or approver of sin. WLC Q. 142. What are the sins forbidden in the eighth commandment? A. The sins forbidden in the eighth commandment, besides the neglect of the duties required, are, theft, robbery, man-stealing, and receiving any thing that is stolen; fraudulent dealing; false weights and measures; removing landmarks; injustice and unfaithfulness in contracts between man and man [Ps. 37:21], or in matters of trust; oppression; extortion; usury; bribery; vexatious lawsuits; unjust inclosures and depopulations; engrossing commodities to enhance the price, unlawful callings, and all other unjust or sinful ways of taking or withholding from our neighbor what belongs to him, or of enriching ourselves

- I. The Lord laughs at the wicked
- II. The wicked are hurt by their own sword
- III. The wicked have their weapons destroyed
- IV. The wicked will perish
- V. The wicked will be cut off
