Pray with fervency and strength for the following:

• Whitefield Seminary, and other seminaries, and those studying for Church

Office: That seminaries would train according to the pure doctrines of Scripture. Pray for the presbyteries that have men under care, that they might know their fitness not only doctrinally, but as men of uprightness also. Pray for the elders and deacons in our Presbytery that are completing their studies, for diligence. Pray for tender, teachable, and pastoral hearts for all of our officers and men in training.

• Officers and Members of Reformed Presbyterian Churches, & of the RPCGA

That ministers and elders would be sound in faith, ministers true in preaching Christ. Pray that the Lord would bless the fruit of the preached Word. Pray for the success of the Gospel and the calling of the elect by Gospel preaching here and abroad. Pray that we as a people would learn to love obedience, and to identify, forsake, and mortify our sins, and that we would be free from soul-damaging error and practice, and that we would live lives separate from the world, and separated unto Christ, shining as lights in this dark world.

• For Rain: Praise for the good rains the Lord has sent, and pray for more rain.

CCRPC: Pray for one another! Pray for your Pastor and your Elders! Pray that our pastor might be able to labor full time in the ministry. Pray that the Lord would bring others of like faith to CCRPC, and that we would be forward as a congregation to invite others to Church. Pray for those who are afflicted, in body or soul, that the Lord would sanctify all our afflictions unto us, that we may be more aware of our corruptions and sins, more ready to part with all disobedience, and that He would give relief in His due time. Pray that if we are chastised, we would keep a humble attitude of entreaty to the Lord, that we might grow, and partake of that holiness which comes of His kind and fatherly hand in chastisement. Pray that our weakness would remind us of His great strength, and that we would more readily and fully rely upon Him.

Our Name:

Christ: Our only Surety and Mediator, Sacrifice and Substitute, Righteousness and Sanctification; the Wisdom of God, the Logos of God, triumphing as the Second Adam where the first Adam fell, God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity

Covenant: The means whereby the Triune God has brought His people into everlasting and gracious communion with Himself, unilaterally, uniting them to Christ, the only Mediator of the Covenant of Grace

Reformed: Teaching the Biblical Doctrines of God's Sovereignty, of Divine Monergism in our redemption, of His initiating and sovereign Grace and Salvation as the only hope of man to escape eternal judgment; the sufficiency of the Scriptures, and the "righteousness of God which is by the faith of Jesus Christ" alone, preached and restored to the Church at large during the Protestant Reformation

Presbyterian: Confessing and practicing the Biblical doctrines of Church government, of a broader authority than that of the local congregation, held in a plurality of elders, and those as distinctively taught in the Westminster Standards, 1647.

Church: The Visible people of God, Called out of the world as His people, under Christ's government, discipline, and instruction; administered by Elders, called as saints to serve Him together with their children regardless of age; and testifying to His invisible Church, the whole number of the elect that have been, are, or shall be gathered into one under Christ the Head.
