Exposition of Revelation

The Bowls of Wrath, Har-Magedon, and Babylon (15:5-16:21) (Part 2)

Introduction

1. This section demonstrates the escalated and intensified wrath of God in the seven bowls, which are the seven plagues. See 15:1 and 16:21
2. Keep in mind the multiperspective dimension of Revelation.
3. This final series of judgments has multiple functions:

I. The Temple Opened in Heaven (15:5-8)

- A. The Temple of the Tabernacle in heaven was opened (15:5)
- B. The seven angels who had the seven plagues (15:6)
- C. One of the four living creatures gives the bowls of wrath to the angels (15:7)
- D. The Temple fills with smoke (15:8)

II. The First Five Bowls (16:1-12)

- A. The command from the temple (16:1)
Isa. 66:6
- B. The first angel and the plague on the earth (16:2)
(cf. boils Ex 9:8-12)
- C. The second angel and the plague on the sea (16:3)
(Cf. Rev. 8:8-9)
- D. The third angel and the plague on the rivers and springs (16:4-7)
(Cf. 8:10-11; Ex. 7:17-20)
- E. The fourth angel and the plague on the sun (16:8-9)
Prov. 19:3
- F. The fifth angel and the plague on the throne of the beast (16:10-11)
(Cf. 5th trumpet, 9:2; Ex. 10:21)
