

The Apostle Paul: An Example of Christian Contentment

Philippians 4:11

- I. Enroll in the school of contentment. Paul needed an education on contentment.
 - A. Contentment is not natural. Paul was naturally covetous.

 - B. Contentment must be acquired. Paul had to become content.

- II. Master the lesson of contentment. Paul learned the lesson of contentment.
 - A. Contentment can be learned today. Paul learned to be content wherever God led him.

 - B. Contentment can be yours every day. Paul learned to be content because God strengthened him.