III. Living as the Father's children for the long haul

Application Questions

- What pain has been tempting you to bitterness toward God (weariness of soul)?
- Do you believe everything that happens to you is ultimately from God?
- How do you need to talk differently to yourself about your pain?
- Are there places where it is really hard to construe what's happened as the discipline of a loving Father? How does looking to Jesus' own pain help?
