1. The Sovereign Lord is the Creator and Sustainer of the world and _____ that is within it.

“All parts and regions of the earth are the Lord’s, all under His eye, all in His hand; so that, wherever a child of God goes, he may comfort himself with this, that he does not go off his Father’s ground.” - Matthew Henry

2. The Sovereign Lord makes it clear how one can receive _____ from Him.

- a. The Creator is perfectly holy, therefore to stand in His glorious presence requires perfect holiness.
 - 1) One must refrain from all evil _____.
 - 2) One must refrain from every evil _____ and desire.
 - 3) One must not give their soul over to the _____ things of the world.
 - 4) One must always deal _____ with both God and man.

b. It is only by the righteousness that is earned by Christ that one receives the blessing of _____ from God by faith.

c. Those who _____ the Lord in faith will find Him.

3. It is the Lord Jesus Christ who is the exalted King of glory.

a. The Lord Jesus Christ is honored as the _____ one who could ascend into the hill of the Lord.

b. The Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord mighty in battle, fully accomplished salvation for sinners and then _____ in victory to the right hand of the Father.

c. As the exalted King of glory, the Lord Jesus Christ will _____, putting all His enemies under His feet, and judging the world as the Lord of hosts.
