

HEALTH, JOBS AND DECISIONS? | ROMANS 8:26-30

Since God wants believers to be like Christ, we pray in Jesus' name when we pray for believers to be like Christ.

Context: Romans 8:26-30 is part of a longer paragraph that focuses on the future glory of believers in Christ (18-25) and what God provides for us while we wait for this glory (26-30).

Two ways God supports us while we wait for His plan to unfold:

1. _____ of the Holy Spirit (26-27).

2. _____ of God (28-30).
 - a. Notice what this does and does not teach:
 - i. Not that everything that happens in life is _____.
 - ii. Not that everything that happens in life is _____.
 - iii. It teaches that _____.

 - b. Notice what "good" is and is not: it is not selfish advancement or benefits but _____.

 - c. The doctrine of predestination is Biblical and _____.

How praying for believers to be Christlike is praying "in Jesus' name":

- In compliance with his character  _____
- Based on his merit  _____
- With his power and authority  _____
- In line with his priorities & purposes  _____
