Prayer is a channel of grace, for the conveying of blessings from God. . . . a means of worship, whereby we are to do our homage to God and give him the glory of his deity . . . a humble appeal from our impotency to God's omnipotence. In prayer we do not only beg mercy of God, but vow praise to God for the mercies we beg. . . . [so that] we wear with thankfulness what we win with prayer.

William Gurnall (17th century English Puritan)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms.

Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
