1. In days of judgment, the Church should sing of the strong _____ of salvation that the Lord God has given us.

- a. The walls of salvation grant a _____ in Christ no matter what the outside threats may be.
- b. The gates of salvation are _____ to all who will enter—even whole nations.
- c. Those who are truly citizens of the strong city of salvation will _____ in faithfulness to the Lord.

2. In days of judgment, the Church should sing of the trustworthiness of the Lord our everlasting

_____.

- a. It is by the Lord's fixed and certain _____ that all who hope in Him will enjoy eternal peace.

- b. Believers have reason to _____ in the Lord, even in times of great upheaval, because He is truly an everlasting Rock.

- c. Believers should take opportunities to call on _____ to trust in the Lord as well.

3. In days of judgment, the Church should sing of the Lord bringing down the proud city of _____ and lifting up the lowly.

- a. Man _____ exalts himself as being wiser and more powerful than God.
- b. The Lord will bring down those who set themselves up as His enemies and _____ those who humbly trust in Him.
