

Setting our minds on heavenly things does not mean that we are given permission to neglect earthly things.

Colossians

It is not by accident that these commands (1.) to love and (2.) to not be harsh follow the command for wives to submit to their husbands.

Colossians

The scripture does not say, "Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, make your wives submit." COLOSSIANS
Husbands, God's desire for you in marriage is not to demand submission, it is to love your wife. Colossians
What would make you more likely to submit and respect your husband? A. Him demanding that you must submit? B. Him loving you?

It is not the role of the husband to make his wife submit. Taking on such a role will wreak havoc on the relationship. Instead, he is to focus on his role of loving.

Colossians

	Sermon: Colossians 3:19
1.	The Biblical roles of women and men in marriage are not exactly the same. The world pushes the narrative that roles should be identical. What problems could possibly arise if there is a constant battle for the leadership role in the home? See Eph. 5:23 and 1 Cor. 11:3 for establishment of headship in marriage.
2.	Were you taught the Biblical roles of a husband's headship in the home before you were married?
	If not, when? Did not knowing this information lead to conflicts, argumentation, disrespect, etc. in the home?
3.	Should we expect our spouses to perfectly obey the Biblical roles for marriage now that they have learned, or been reminded of them?

Why or why not?

Series: Colossians

4. When? How? Or should a spouse let bring it to their husband or wife's attention that he or she is falling short in these Biblical roles? Be careful in this discussion.
5. A husband is placed by God as the head of the marital relationship. However, this is not as easy as one

- head of the marital relationship.

 However, this is not as easy as one might think. Along with the Biblical assignment of position has also come the Biblical job description.

 The husband is commanded to lead, but to also: not be harsh, to love his wife as Christ loved the church, to sanctify her, to love her as his own body, to sacrificially love her, to nourish her, cherish her, honor her, and to understand her. Do you think the husband's job description is emphasized as much as the husband's job position among Christians today?
- 6. People most often learn their roles as husband or wife from their parents. What influence did your parent's marital roles have in your marriage?
- 7. How do wives being commanded to submit as unto the Lord (Eph. 5:22) and husbands being commanded to love as Christ has loved (Eph. 5:25) help us to be steadier in our love application of these commands?
