

- I. In the text and context, Solomon is addressing the worldview of the godly youth
- II. What the text is teaching for youth is that truth matters for life.

Remember Your Creator

I. Remembering the Creator's Greatness

- A. Remember our great Creator's power and our dependence on Him.

- B. God created all things for the purpose of His glory (Rev. 4:11).

II. Remembering Him in Love

- A. Remembering our Creator's power and purpose is an activity of love.

- B. God's Word calls us remember our Creator now, and not later in a time of great evil.

III. Remember Him in Christ

- A. We are able to remember Him, because He remembers us in Christ.

- B. With urgency, let us remember Him and serve Him in all of life.
-