Meeting at: 1008 West Erwin Avenue, McKinney, TX 75069

40 "Now, my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place. 41 Now therefore, arise, O Lord God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let Your saints rejoice in goodness. 42 O Lord God, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed; Remember the mercies of Your servant David."

WLC Q. 153. What doth God require of us, that we may escape his wrath and curse due to us by reason of the transgression of the law? A. That we may escape the wrath and curse of God due to us by reason of the transgression of the law, he requireth of us repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ, and the diligent use of the outward means whereby Christ communicates to us the benefits of his mediation. John Owen “It [deceit] is a representation of a matter under disguise, hiding that which is undesirable, proposing that which indeed is not in it, that the mind may make a false judgment of it.”

- I. Sin is your great enemy.
- II. Sin deceives you...
 - A. ... into contending against God.
 - B. ... into calling evil good.
 - C. ... into believing God won't judge it.
- III. Sin's great enemy is your great ally.

WCF Ch. 7. Of God's Covenant with Man. 1. The distance between God and the creature is so great, that although reasonable creatures do owe obedience unto Him as their Creator, yet they could never have any fruition of Him as their blessedness and reward, but by some voluntary condescension on God's part, which He hath been pleased to express by way of covenant. 2. The first covenant made with man was a covenant of works, wherein life was promised to Adam; and in him to his posterity, upon condition of perfect and personal obedience.

- I. The participants in the Covenant of Works
- II. The graciousness of God in the Covenant of Works
- III. The condition of man in the Covenant of Works
- IV. The terms of the Covenant of Works
- V. The Covenant of Grace superior to the Covenant of Works
