

ISAIAH
A Covenant With Death
Isaiah 28:14-29

Mac Williams, Pastor
January 31, 2016

1. To reject the Lord and His Word is to build your life on a foundation of _____ and deception.

- a. Because of their God-given responsibility for others, it is a real tragedy when _____ scoff at the Word of God.
- b. God's judgment is always righteous and certain, and will sweep away any _____ of lies.

“Every course of action not based on faith in Jehovah, and not in accordance with the strict rule of Divine righteousness will prove a _____ refuge in the day of judgment.” - John Skinner

- c. God delights in showing mercy, but He will bring about His _____ work of judgment if people persist in unbelief.

2. God has provided a _____ foundation in Christ that is worthy of our full and uncompromising faith.

- a. By God's clear promises we can see that He has solidly founded the Church on _____.

“If Christ be taken away the Church will fall down and be _____.” - John Calvin

- b. There is nothing or no one that is more valuable and more _____ in life than the Lord Jesus Christ.
- c. Apart from Christ life seems perplexing and meaningless but in Him there is a _____ foundation.

3. Christians can rest in the reality that though the Lord does His work in _____ ways, by His great wisdom, His purposes are always accomplished.

- a. Do not _____ your eyes to the work God is doing even though you may not understand it.
- b. Do not _____ God's glorious promises just because His judgment seems prominent at the time.