

Psalm 73

A Tale of Two Prospective

1. The author of this Psalm is _____.

Who is he?

- Asaph was a _____ of King David and the early years of King Solomon
- He was a _____
- He was the _____ musician
- He wrote _____ psalms #50 , 73-83
- He had a _____ position of _____ to the Lord

2. Asaph _____ the worldly position, physical comfort, and prosperity the _____ possessed.

3. Asaph doubted the _____ of his salvation and service for the Lord.

What had Asaph focused his attention on?

4. Asaph comes to his senses...

a. He realized the _____ of the unsaved

b. He recognizes the _____ of his thinking

c. Sees himself _____ before the Lord.

5. Asaph realizes the value of his position in the Lord ...

a. God is _____ with us despite ourselves or our _____

b. God has promised to _____ guide His children with His counsel

6. Asaph regains an _____ prospective.

7. Asaph returns to the joy of fellowship and resumes his _____