

I. The call to repent, thwarted by sin (3:6–13)

II. The call to repent with power (3:14–22a)

III. True repentance (3:22b–4:2)

Application Questions

- Are there areas where you are repenting “in pretense”—you’re saying sorry just to get out of the situation?
- What are the places where you know you are doing wrong, but it seems impossible to repent?
- How does Christ’s promise to heal your faithlessness encourage you to have greater hope?

I. The call to repent, thwarted by sin (3:6–13)

II. The call to repent with power (3:14–22a)

III. True repentance (3:22b–4:2)

Application Questions

- Are there areas where you are repenting “in pretense”—you’re saying sorry just to get out of the situation?
- What are the places where you know you are doing wrong, but it seems impossible to repent?
- How does Christ’s promise to heal your faithlessness encourage you to have greater hope?