“BEING A RESTORED HUMAN”

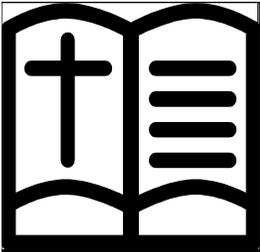

“THAT PURIFYING BLESSED HOPE”

REVELATION 17:1-18; PROVERBS passages

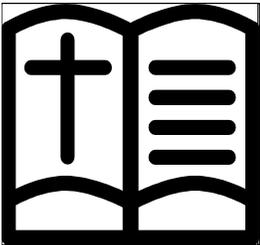

PART 3: “BEAUTY AND THE BEAST”

I. THE TALE OF TWO WOMEN AND THE BEAST

- A. The importance of covenant loyalty to God
- B. Marriage as a picture of covenant loyalty
- C. Wisdom: the ideal of the perfect marriage partner loyal to the covenant with each other and God
 - 1. Her marriage is to God
 - 2. She is not offering herself but the wisdom she has in her relationship to God; it would be disloyal and adulteress to give herself to someone else when she is in covenant with God
 - 3. She cries out to all the passersby in the market square to come attend her banquet of truth and wisdom Proverbs 1; 8; 9 and throughout
 - 4. Many promises are given to those who enter a learning relationship with her
 - 5. She represents man in his proper relationship to God in the fear of the LORD followed by faith in Him; she is the gift of eternal life
- D. The adulterous woman, the strange woman, the immoral woman, the foreign woman: the woman who wants to be free of her covenant to be her own person.
 - 1. She has a covenant to her husband but cannot stand the “slavery” it is to her; she wants adventure; she wants freedom; she wants to be in charge

2. She too is looking for someone but she wants to commit adultery with them; she wants to use them, to get what she can from them then throw them away for another fun time
 3. She is committed only to herself and cannot find it in her to do otherwise; she cannot be faithful to God and His covenant
 4. She is boisterous, loud and can be obnoxious
 5. She is lustful and wasteful
 6. Her door leads to death and hades
- E. Wisdom is the gift of eternal life given to us in Christ*
- F. The adulterous woman is Babylon, the Whore*
1. She has seduced nations, kings and the peoples of the earth since her creation after the Tower of Babel
 2. She has been around for centuries seducing people into conquest and theft of the stewardship of others; still here! Acts 17:26-27
 3. She has been responsible for the death of millions to satisfy her lusts
 4. She finds a resting place and names it after herself: Babylon
 5. She rides the beast whom she has ridden since the days of the first conqueror, Nimrod
 6. Describing the beast, the satanic creation of empires: out of the bottomless pit; he was, is not and will be; 7 head - 7 mountains, 7 kings, 5 have fallen, one is and one is to come; 10 horns - 10 kings w/o kingdoms in John's day
