#455 And Can It Be That I Should Gain

* Confessing Our Faith

Confession of Faith in Modern English, Chapter 10.1-2

All those—and only those—whom God has predestined to life, he is pleased to call effectually in his appointed and accepted time, by his Word and Spirit. He calls them from the state of sin and death—in which they are by nature—to grace and salvation by Jesus Christ. In this calling, God enlightens their minds spiritually and savingly, so that they understand the things of God. He takes away their hearts of stone and gives them hearts of flesh, renews their wills, and by his almighty power turns them to what is good and effectually draws them to Jesus Christ. Yet he does this in such a way that they come most freely, being made willing by his grace.

This effectual call is from God's free and special grace alone, and not from anything at all that God foresees in man, who is entirely passive in it, until—being made alive and renewed by the Holy Spirit—he is enabled to answer the call and embrace the grace offered and conveyed in it.

* Asking God to Open Our Hearts to His Word

God Speaks through His Word

Ephesians 2:1-10 (Pew Bible p. 976)

The Unstoppable God

Ephesians 2:1-10

February 18, 2024

Paul's teaching about total depravity is on a mission to build up believers.

The grim reality of being dead in sin includes subjugation by the influences of the unregenerate world.

It also includes what cannot be observed directly but is nevertheless very real, the dominion of the devil.

Yet the problem is not primarily outside a person, but deep within the thinking, feeling, and willing of universal human nature.

However—praise be to the Lord!—none of these realities hinders God's redeeming power in Christ Jesus to deliver and transform those who are the objects of his mercy, love, and grace.

The bass staff begins with a whole note chord (F#2, A2, C3) and continues with a series of chords and notes. The lyrics "A - men, a - men, a - - men." are written below the treble staff, with hyphens indicating the duration of the notes.
